Gold Diggers:

The Gold Diggers Kwasi Koranteng, 1992 One of a series of readers for African students which aims to help them to develop an awareness and a love of language and consists of stories from all over Africa In this story Inspector Kanjagi is working under cover to stop a gang of thieves Four of his colleagues have died on the mission Gold Diggers of 1933 James Seymour, David Boehm, Ben Markson, 1980 A popular 1919 Broadway play it pits a group of showgirls against a stodgy upper crust Boston Brahmin type and his lawyer The action centers around two themes money and how to get it and love

Female Spectacle Susan A. Glenn, 2009-07-01 When the French actress Sarah Bernhardt made her first American tour in 1880 the term feminism had not yet entered our national vocabulary But over the course of the next half century a rising generation of daring actresses and comics brought a new kind of woman to center stage Exploring and exploiting modern fantasies and fears about female roles and gender identity these performers eschewed theatrical convention and traditional notions of womanly modesty They created powerful images of themselves as ambitious independent and sexually expressive New Women Female Spectacle reveals the theater to have been a powerful new source of cultural authority and visibility for women Ironically theater also provided an arena in which producers and audiences projected the uncertainties and hostilities that accompanied changing gender relations From Bernhardt's modern methods of self promotion to Emma Goldman's political theatrics from the female mimics and Salome dancers to the upwardly striving chorus girl Glenn shows us how and why theater mattered to women and argues for its pivotal role in the emergence of modern feminism Who's in the Money? Harvey G. Cohen, 2018-02-01 Harry and Jack Warner were among the most important advocates and fundraisers of President Franklin Roosevelt during his 1932 presidential campaign supporting his New Deal legislation in successful Great Depression musicals like 42nd Street Gold Diggers of 1933 and Footlight Parade But while the Warner brothers posed as exemplars of the New Deal in real life and in their movies they were attempting to reverse Roosevelt's policies within their studio and their industry Using newly unearthed primary sources this ground breaking book examines the bitter and little known struggle in Hollywood and Washington D C during 1933 to create a National Recovery Administration (NRA) code of practice for the motion picture industry But through the manipulation of New Deal legislation Harry and Jack Warner along with other studio moguls sought to curtail workers rights and salaries instead of bolstering both sides of the labour management divide as they were supposed to do under NRA regulations attempting to serve the economic pain of the Depression as much as possible onto artists and craftsmen not owners or management With its tales of Hollywood stars and employees fighting to win a fair share of the proceeds of their labour the creation of the NRA code makes for an intriguing story of financial survival political intrigue and backstabbing during the worst of the Great Depression Land and the Politics of Belonging in West Africa, 2005-12-01 Recognizing that land rights are ambiguous negotiable and politically embedded these case studies explore the long term processes and recent changes in contemporary rural West Africa affecting the conversion of control over land into social and political capital and vice versa They point to the colonial origins of what came to be viewed as customary tenure and to the legal pluralism characterizing pre colonial tenure arrangements Furthermore they show the spiritual and ritual importance of land that can be converted into political power and economic prerogatives a dimension neglected by much of the recent literature Analyses cover forest and savannah state and segmentary societies facilitating comparison and insights across the Anglo Francophone divide Supreme Court
