Harold Cruse

Freedom Is Now:

Freedom on My Mind Manning Marable, 2003-07-10 Freedom on My Mind reveals the richly diverse and complex experience of black people in America in their own words from the Colonial era of Benjamin Banneker to the present world of Kweisi Mfume and Clarence Thomas Personal correspondence excerpts from slave narratives and autobiographies leaflets significant addresses and speeches oral histories and interviews political manifestos and important statements of black institutions and organizations are brought together to form a volume that testifies to the boundless creative potential of black Americans in indefatigable pursuit of the dream of freedom Arranged thematically the selections illustrate the politics of resistance as reflected through gender and sexuality kinship and community work and leisure faith and spirituality They also highlight the contributions of women to black identity history and consciousness and offer excerpts from the work of some of the finest stylists in the African American canon A general introduction as well as short introductions and bibliographies for each document further enhance the usefulness of the book for students and researchers Ebony, 1990-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual Harold Cruse, 2005-06-30 Published in 1967 as the early triumphs of the Civil Rights movement yielded to increasing frustration and violence The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual electrified a generation of activists and intellectuals The product of a lifetime of struggle and reflection Cruse s book is a singular amalgam of cultural history passionate disputation and deeply considered analysis of the relationship between American blacks and American society Reviewing black intellectual life from the Harlem Renaissance through the 1960s Cruse discusses the legacy and offers memorably acid edged portraits of figures such as Paul Robeson Lorraine Hansberry and James Baldwin arguing that their work was marked by a failure to understand the specifically American character of racism in the United States This supplies the background to Cruse s controversial critique of both integrationism and black nationalism and to his claim that black Americans will only assume a just place within American life when they develop their own distinctive centers of cultural and economic influence For Cruse s most important accomplishment may well be his rejection of the clichés of the melting pot in favor of a vision of Americanness as an arena of necessary and vital contention an open and ongoing struggle Economic Freedom of North America Amela Karabegović, 2008 Freedom Rider Diary Carol Ruth Silver, 2014-01-23 One woman s harrowing unforgettable account from the nadir of Jim Crow Mississippi The Black Utopians Aaron Robertson, 2024-10-01 One of The New York Times s 100 Notable Books of 2024 One of the Washington Post s 50 Best Nonfiction Books of 2024 A Finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for History Finalist for the Zora Award A New York Public Library Top Ten Book of 2024 A Boston Globe Best Book of 2024 A New Republic Best Book of the Fall A Time Must Read Book of the Year A 2025 Michigan Notable Book A Booklist Best History Book of 2025 Named a Best Book of the Year by The New Yorker Literary Hub Essence Elle Chicago

Public Library An extraordinary new work of history and memoir Unforgettable Gabriel Bump The Washington Post A lyrical meditation on how Black Americans have envisioned utopia and sought to transform their lives How do the disillusioned the forgotten and the persecuted not merely hold on to life but expand its possibilities and preserve its beauty What in other words does utopia look like in black These questions animate Aaron Robertson s exploration of Black Americans efforts to remake the conditions of their lives Writing in the tradition of Saidiya Hartman and Ta Nehisi Coates Robertson makes his way from his ancestral hometown of Promise Land Tennessee to Detroit the city where he was born and where one of the country s most remarkable Black utopian experiments got its start Founded by the brilliant preacher Albert Cleage Jr the Shrine of the Black Madonna combined Afrocentric Christian practice with radical social projects to transform the self conception of its members Central to this endeavor was the Shrine s chancel mural of a Black Virgin and child the icon of a nationwide liberation movement that would come to be known as Black Christian Nationalism The Shrine s members opened bookstores and co ops created a self defense force and raised their children communally eventually working to establish the country s largest Black owned farm where attempts to create an earthly paradise for Black people continues today Alongside the Shrine s story Robertson reflects on a diverse array of Black utopian visions from the Reconstruction era through the countercultural fervor of the 1960s and 1970s and into the present day By doing so Robertson showcases the enduring quest of collectives and individuals for a world beyond the constraints of systemic racism The Black Utopians offers a nuanced portrait of the struggle for spaces both ideological and physical where Black dignity protection and nourishment are paramount This book is the story of a movement and of a world still in the making one that points the way toward radical alternatives for the future
