Army Service Forces. Information and Education Division,1944     Freedom through Submission: Muslim-talk in Contemporary Denmark Johannes Renders,2021-03-01 In Freedom through Submission Johannes Renders explores Danish Muslim statements on human freedom Within a context where public talk of Islam is largely mediated by an incessant succession of controversies the notion of freedom is weaponized both by and against a growing Muslim community Danish Muslims take issue with liberal associations of the notion with autonomy and choice and seek to reconfigure the public debate that pits freedom against Islam This book brings out a sophisticated and reflective Muslim discourse in which freedom is something individuals must simultaneously exercise surrender and achieve through a cultivated relinquishing of the will to Allah     The Spectator ,1920     The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1914     Who's who in America ,1926     The Publishers Weekly ,1914     In re Shepard's Estate, 161 MICH 441 (1910) , 38     The Imperial Church Katherine D. Moran,2020-05-15 Through a fascinating discussion of religion s role in the rhetoric of American civilizing empire The Imperial Church undertakes an exploration of how Catholic mission histories served as a useful reference for Americans narrating US settler colonialism on the North American continent and seeking to extend military political and cultural power around the world Katherine D Moran traces historical celebrations of Catholic missionary histories in the upper Midwest Southern California and the US colonial Philippines to demonstrate the improbable centrality of the Catholic missions to ostensibly Protestant imperial endeavors Moran shows that as the United States built its continental and global dominion and an empire of production and commerce in the Gilded Age and Progressive Era Protestant and Catholic Americans began to celebrate Catholic imperial pasts She demonstrates that American Protestants joined their Catholic compatriots in speaking with admiration about historical Catholic missionaries the Jesuit Jacques Marquette in the Midwest the Franciscan Jun pero Serra in Southern California and the Spanish friars in the Philippines Comparing them favorably to the Puritans Pilgrims and the American Revolutionary generation commemorators drew these missionaries into a cross confessional pantheon of US national and imperial founding fathers In the process they cast Catholic missionaries as gentle and effective agents of conquest uplift and economic growth arguing that they could serve as both origins and models for an American civilizing empire The Imperial Church connects Catholic history and the history of US empire by demonstrating that the religious dimensions of American imperial rhetoric have been as cross confessional as the imperial nation itself     Plain Talk ,1927     The Dial ,1914     Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
