guide to the disturbed personality through handwriting

Irene Marcuse, Ph.D.

A layman's guide to the scientific principles of GRAPHOLOGY and how they can uncover the danger signals of mental illness in time for psychologists and other professionals to take corrective action

With 24 handwriting samples and the case histories behind them

Irene Marcuse was born and educated in Europe, where her interest in the field of handwriting analysis led her to the study of psychology and philosophy at the University of Florence. She studied handwriting analysis with Max Mabit in Zurich, where she subsequently lectured on the subject in addition to the University of Rome, Florence, Bologna, and Milan.

After a number of years in New York City, Dr. Marcuse practices and teaches handwriting analysis privately, while conducting a comprehensive course at her own institute. She serves as an advisor to the concerned departments of large educational firms and is considered an expert in assessing the reliability of experimental documents. Dr. Marcuse is the author of Guide to Personality Through Your Handwriting (ARCO), which is designed as a course in itself.
