Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020-09-25 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan's Atonement

It Is Time Marilyn Hume, 2009-01 If you've ever been wounded by others or know someone who has this book is for you Come take a journey into God's heart Gain a new understanding of why He has asked us to forgive Experience the true stories of those who have found the joy and freedom of forgiveness Learn how to be healed from your wounds release others from your judgments and regain peace of heart and mind Then hear the pleading of heaven and the cries of millions of captives estranged from God and one another who are waiting for a special group of people like you to arise who will demonstrate the life of a supernatural world changing God A people who will love and forgive who will be free from their own inner prisons then see the treasure beyond the rags and bondage of others seek them out and joyfully welcome them home Creation groans Hearts long When will they appear It Is Time The Presbyterian ,1906 Unity ,1917 The Sovereignty of Character Albert Durrant Watson,1914 2 Corinthians Dr. Matthew N.
