Film Nation Robert Burgoyne,1997 Explores contemporary American films that challenge official history Our movies have started talking back to us and Film Nation takes a close look at what they have to say In movies like JFK and Forrest Gump Robert Burgoyne sees a filmic extension of the debates that exercise us as a nation debates about race and culture and national identity about the nature and makeup of American history In analyses of five films that challenge the traditional myths of the nation state Glory Thunderheart JFK Born on the Fourth of July and Forrest Gump Burgoyne explores the reshaping of our collective imaginary in relation to our history These movies exploring the meaning of nation from below highlight issues of power that underlie the narrative construction of nationhood Film Nation exposes the fault lines between national myths and the historical experience of people typically excluded from those myths Throughout Burgoyne demonstrates that these films in their formal design also preserve relics of the imaginary past they contest Here we see how the genre memory of the western the war film and the melodrama shapes these films creating a complex exchange between old concepts of history and the alternative narratives of historical experience that contemporary texts propose The first book to apply theories of nationalism and national identity to contemporary American films Film Nation reveals the cinematic rewriting of history now taking place as a powerful attempt to rearticulate the cultural narratives that define America as a
