Han Yu and the Tang Search for Unity Charles Hartmann, 1986      Han Yu and the T'ang Search for Unity Charles Hartman, 2014-07-14 This work is a comprehensive study of Han Yu 768-824 a principal figure in the history of the Chinese Confucian tradition Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Han Yü and the T'ang Search for Unity Charles Hartman, 1986 This work is a comprehensive study of Han Yu 768-824 a principal figure in the history of the Chinese Confucian tradition Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These paperback editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Migrating Fujianese Guotong Li, 2016-11-07 With the Fujian coast at its center this book reveals the intellectual migratory and gendered relationships that tied Fujian to the Chinese imperial domain and to its overseas networks This Fujian study also offers ways to analyze local histories of late imperial China from a more global perspective Based on a wide range of sources such as business contracts legal documents women's writings and folksongs Migrating Fujianese elucidates China's southeast coast and its migration patterns Examining this multi-ethnic migrant community through the lens of ethnicity shows the complex operation of linked chain migration overseas male emigration and overland family migration by the ethnic She people and its impact on the gender relations and family strategies of the coastal people The study argues that examination of Fujianese migration through the lenses of gender and ethnicity is crucial to understanding the relationship between the flow of people and the society nourishing that flow      The Religious Ethic and Mercantile Spirit in Early Modern China Ying-shih Yü, 2021-03-23 Why did modern capitalism not arise in late imperial China One famous answer comes from Max Weber whose The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism gave a canonical analysis of religious and cultural factors in early modern European economic development In The Religions of China Weber contended that China lacked the crucial religious impetus to capitalist growth that Protestantism gave Europe The preeminent historian Ying-shih Yü offers a magisterial examination of religious and cultural influences in the development of China's early modern economy both complement and counterpoint to Weber's inquiry The Religious Ethic and Mercantile Spirit in Early Modern China investigates how evolving forms of Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism created and promulgated their own concepts of the work ethic from the late seventh century into the Qing dynasty The book traces how religious leaders developed the spiritual significance of labor and how merchants adopted this religious work ethic raising their status in Chinese society However Y argues China s early modern mercantile spirit was restricted by the imperial bureaucratic priority on social order He challenges Marxists who championed China s sprouts of capitalism during the fifteenth through eighteenth centuries as well as other modern scholars who credit Confucianism with producing dramatic economic growth in East Asian countries Y rejects the premise that China needed an early capitalist stage of development moreover the East Asian capitalism that flourished in the later half of the twentieth century was essentially part of the spread of global capitalism Now available in English translation this landmark work has been greatly influential among scholars in East Asia since its publication in Chinese in 1987

The Linji Lu and the Creation of Chan Orthodoxy Albert Welter,2008-02-28 The Linji lu or Record of Linji ranks among the most famous and influential texts of the Chan and Zen traditions Ostensibly containing the teachings of the Tang dynasty figure Linji Yixuan the text has generally been accepted at face value as reliable records of the teachings of this historical figure In this book Albert Welter offers the first systematic study of the Linji lu in a western language Welter places the Linji lu in its historical context showing how the text was manipulated over time by the Linji faction Rather than recording the teachings of the illustrious patriarch of legend the text reflects the motivations of Linji faction descendants in the Song dynasty 960-1279 The story of the Linji lu is not simply the story of one heroic figure Linji Yixuan but the story of an entire movement that sought validation through retrospective image making The success of this effort is seen in Chan s rise to prominence Drawing on the findings of Japanese scholars Welter moves beyond the minutiae of textual analysis to place the development of Linji lu within the broader forces shaping the development of the Chinese Records of Sayings literary genre as a whole

Buddhist Apologetics in East Asia Uri Kaplan,2019-08-05 While the Neo Confucian critique of Buddhism is fairly well known little attention has been given to the Buddhist reactions to this harangue The fact is however that over a dozen apologetic essays have been written by Buddhists in China Korea and Japan in response to the Neo Confucians Buddhist Apologetics in East Asia offers an introduction to this Buddhist literary genre It centers on full translations of two dominant apologetic works the Hufa lun written by a Buddhist politician in twelfth century China and the Yus k chir i non authored by an anonymous monk in fifteenth century Korea Put together these two texts demonstrate the wide variety of polemical strategies and the cross national intertextuality of East Asian Buddhist apologetics
